

Rajeev Dimri

Designation

Partner and Head of Tax, India

Education Qualification

- Bachelors of Commerce, University of Delhi
- Chartered Accountant

Experience

- Rajeev has an overall experience of more than 30 years covering various industry verticals such as automotive, manufacturing, consumer goods, energy, e-commerce, infrastructure, defence etc.
- He has worked with several e-commerce and technology services companies to deal with tax issues, changes in laws, high pitched litigation and evolving business models including advising on co-marketing agreements, collaboration arrangements and optimising state based credits
- Rajeev has provided strategic tax advice to several multinational businesses across industry verticals with special focus on the automotive sector. In the automotive sector, he has supported players across supply chain such as passenger and commercial vehicle manufacturers, leading component suppliers etc. He has provided comprehensive support from an indirect tax perspective spanning across operations such as, restructuring, government incentives, supply chain and dealer networks etc.
- He has spearheaded GST implementation for multinational and domestic companies across several Industry verticals. He advises clients on new approaches and orientation under GST regime
- He has assisted several MNCs across diverse sectors in setting up green field projects in India
- He has advised on optimising tax function restructuring and quality checks for various domestic and international corporate groups
- He is presently Co-Chairman of the taxation committee at FICCI and is a speaker at multiple industry forums.

Rajeev Dimri National Head, Tax

Direct: + 91 127 304 4077

Mobile: + 91 98 1106 0585

E: rajeevdimri@kpmg.com